Please help us in creating a good atmosphere for this year's recital by observing the following rules:

No food or drinks are allowed in the performance hall.
Refrain from talking and walking about during the performance.
Flash photography is prohibited as it may distract the performers.
Turn off all cell phones, beepers, and any other electronic devices which may cause a disturbance.
If you must leave, please do so in between performances in order to keep distractions to a minimum.

Thank you for helping to make this year's recital our best ever!

OUR DEAR PRINCIPAL

Music Teachers Association of California

Initiated in 1933, the Certificate of Merit program involves approximately 30,000 student who participate in an annual evaluation between mid-February and April and receive a written musical performance assessment. This evaluation is comprised of a written theory exam and an ear training component, and upon successful completion, students receive an official MTAC CM certificate for their level.

Certificate of Merit Winners

Alexander Vu, Allison Phan, Andrew Au, Angelina Ho, Arthur Tran, Avery Tran, Bryce Nguyen-Khoa, Charlie Nguyen, Dieu Anh Tran, Gavin Nguyen, Grant Nguyen, Isabella Phung, Jayden Linh Pham, Jessica Vu, Katherine Ngo, Liam Urquizu, Lilian Nguyen, Max Yap, Megan An, Nathan Nguyen-Khoa, Sophia Thanh Ngoc Pham, Tamara Urquizu, Yanci Gomez.

International Music Performance Exam Certification

The International Music Performance Exam Certification, or IMPEC, is a series of events featuring auditions sponsored by the International Association of Professional Music Teachers (IAPMT).

Teachers who are members of the IAPMT can enroll students and assign a repertoire for them to study based on their level and skills. Students will then perform these pieces for an adjudicator in a private setting, which can be either in-person or online; the adjudicator will then grade the students' performance based upon a variety of criteria, as well as prepare an in-depth report detailing their strengths and weaknesses.

These results, along with a written report, will be confidentially provided to the student, as well as their teacher who can use the results to guide the student towards the optimal course of learning, with the goal being to maximize the student's potential in the field of musical study.
